“Proxy Disclosure Conference”
&
“17th Annual Executive Compensation Conference”

September 21–23, 2020 — via
Live Virtual Conference Event

Proxy disclosures — particularly pay disclosures — continue to draw intense scrutiny from Congress, the SEC Staff, investors, other stakeholders and the media. This pair of full-day conferences will provide the latest essential — and practical — guidance on what compensation committees should be doing now, the best approaches to disclosure and pitfalls to avoid.

Special Early Bird Rate: As a "thank you" to members, we are offering a special discounted rate for a limited time. Don't miss out on the best price for our 2020 conferences!

An archive of the entire video for both conferences will be right there at your desktop to refer back to — and refresh your memory when you are actually grappling with the executive pay process and all of the related disclosures.

Who Should Attend: Every person responsible for preparing and reviewing compensation disclosures — and every person responsible for implementing executive and equity compensation plans or who counsels or advises boards — including executive pay and benefits managers, other HR team members, corporate secretaries, outside counsel, accountants and consultants.

Where: Building on our many years of well-received online conference programming, this year's conferences will be entirely virtual — live and on-demand.
