Chapter 3—Annual Report & 10-K Wrap (Rule 14a-3)

I. SEC Rules and Regulations.	3-5
II. SEC Staff Guidance	3-12
III. How the Rules Work	3-15
a. Understanding the Basics.	3-15
– What is a “Glossy Annual Report”?	3-15
– Understanding “Filing” v. “Furnished”	3-15
– Differs From Form 10-K	3-16
– Often Printed on Glossy Paper.	3-17
– Typeface & Printing Requirements	3-17
– Required When Directors Elected	3-17
– May Incorporate by Reference Into Form 10-K	3-17
– May Integrate with 10-K	3-17
– May Combine With Proxy Statement (But Rare)	3-18
– May Use “10-K Wrap” Instead	3-18
– May Use Summary Annual Report With 10-K	3-18
– Glossy Annual Reports Don’t Need CEO/CFO Certifications (But Some Disclosures Are Covered)	3-19
– Wrapped Form 10-Ks Don’t Need CEO/CFO Certifications.	3-19
b. Information Required.	3-19
– Rule 14a-3(b)’s Bare Minimum.	3-19
– EGCs Provide Scaled Disclosure.	3-20
– Financial/Financial-Related Information Required	3-20
– No Longer Need to Include Selected Financial Data.	3-21
– Requirements for Financial Statements	3-21
– Requirements for Supplementary Financial Information	3-22

– MD&A Required	3-22
– Market Risk Disclosure Required	3-23
– Disclose Changes in—& Disagreements with—Accountants	3-23

Chapter 6—E-Proxy/Notice & Access (Rule 14a-16)

I.	SEC Rules and Regulations.	6-5
II.	SEC Staff Guidance	6-11
III.	How the Rules Work	6-11
	a. Understanding the Basics.	6-11
	– What is “Notice & Access” or “E-Proxy”?	6-11

– Designed to Reduce Costs and Expand Receipt & Delivery Alternatives . . .	6-11
– Still Can Deliver Paper If Desired	6-12
– “Mandatory” Means All Companies Must Use Certain Aspects of E-Proxy	6-12
– Not Available for Business Combinations & Other Specified Circumstances	6-12
– Limited M&A Situations Where E-Proxy Available (Reorgs & Domicile Change)	6-13
– Can Still Use Consents for E-Delivery in Business Combinations	6-13
– Three Alternatives: Notice-Only, Full Set Delivery or Hybrid	6-13
– Company’s Choice Dictates Delivery Alternatives for Intermediaries	6-14
– Before Selecting Delivery Strategy, Check State Law	6-14
– State Notice Requirements for Shareholder Meetings Still Apply	6-15
– Combining E-Proxy & State Law Notices	6-15
– E-Proxy Doesn’t Impact Other Proxy Material Requirements	6-15
– How Broadridge’s Site Works	6-15
– Dissidents Can Use E-Proxy	6-16
– Newly Public Companies Can Choose Notice-Only Option	6-16
b. How “Notice-Only” Works	6-16
– Separate Notice Required	6-16
– Notice Must Contain Specified Items	6-17
– Can’t Contain Additional Information Except Protective Warning	6-17
– Can Be Combined With State Law-Required Notice	6-17
– Must Use “Plain English”	6-17
– Broadridge Typically Prepares Notice & Company Reviews	6-18
– May Include Pictures, Logos & Other Design Elements	6-18
– Must Provide Information to Intermediaries for Beneficial Owners	6-18
– 40-Day Deadline for Notice Delivery	6-19
– 45-Day Deadline for Broadridge	6-19
– Notice is Not a Proxy	6-20
– Notice Doesn’t Need to Conform with Proxy Card Rules	6-20
– No Supporting Statements Permitted	6-20
– Notice Must be Sent Separately—Not With Proxy Card	6-20
– Explanatory Materials Can Be Provided	6-21
– Company’s (But Not Intermediary’s) Notice Must Be Filed with SEC As Additional Soliciting Material	6-21
– Missed Filing May Result in S-3 Eligibility Loss	6-21
– Notice Must Be Searchable & Downloadable	6-22
– Proxy Card/VIF Can Only Be Sent 10 Days Later	6-22
– Shareholders Must Be Able to Execute Proxy When Notice Sent	6-23
– Shareholders Can Always Request Paper or Electronic Copies	6-23
– Can Solicit Shareholders Who Opt for Paper to Change Mind	6-23

– Notice Must Include Instructions to Request Copies	6-24
– Paper Copies Must Be Sent Three Business Days from Request	6-24
– Shareholders Can Request Copies for One Year Post-Meeting	6-24
– Shareholders Can Make Permanent Election to Receive Paper or E-Mail	6-24
– Transfer Agent May Request Legal Opinion	6-25
c. Website Requirements	6-25
– Proxy Materials Must Be Posted on Specified Website	6-25
– Host Site Can Be Other Than Company’s (So Long As Cookie Rule Met).	6-25
– Additional Solicitation Materials May Need to Be Posted	6-26
– Intermediaries Also Required to Refer to Website	6-26
– Materials Must Be Posted in Readable, Printable Format	6-26
– Interactive Annual Reports Becoming More Common	6-27
– Materials Must Be Posted When Notice First Sent	6-27
– Website Must Ensure Shareholder Anonymity & Confidentiality	6-28
d. Full Set Delivery Option	6-28
– Can Continue Delivery of Paper (or E-Mail) Copies	6-28
– Must Still Post Materials & Provide Notice	6-28
– No Separate Notice Required	6-29
– Must File Separate Notice (But Not Intermediary’s Notice) with SEC	6-29
– Notice Must Contain Most Information Required Under Notice-Only	6-29
– Separate Notice Requires “Plain English”	6-30
– Don’t Need to Comply With 40-Day Notice Deadline	6-30
– Provide Notice Information to Intermediaries for Beneficial Owners	6-30
– No Need to Provide or Offer Copies Upon Request	6-31
– Can Send Follow-Up Proxy Card	6-31
e. Hybrid Option	6-31
IV. Common Questions & Our Analysis	6-32
a. General	6-32
– Don’t Need to Send Hard Copies of Annual Report to SEC (If Posted Online).	6-32
– Failure to File Notice as Additional Soliciting Material	6-32
– Implications for State Notice Requirements	6-33
– Interplay Between E-Proxy & Delaware Law	6-34
– Public Accessibility of Proxy Materials	6-34
– Proxy Card/Voting Instructions Must Be Accessible on Website	6-35
– Must Use Same Medium for Proxy Statement & Annual Report	6-35
– California Allows E-Proxy	6-36
– Can Post Proxy Materials Before Mail Notice	6-36
– Must Post Proxy Materials Until Meeting Concludes	6-36

– Archiving Practices for Annual Reports Depend on Circumstances	6-37
– Year-Round Enrollment for Electronic Communications	6-37
– Undeliverable Notices: Forward to Transfer Agent (& Take Extra Steps for Large Holders)	6-37
– Resuming Full Set Delivery After Trying Notice-Only	6-38
– Timeline for Notice & Access	6-39
– Notice & Access Card as Admission Ticket	6-39
– Notice & Access for Information Statements	6-39
– Additional Soliciting Material	6-40
– Director Nominated After Notice Mailed	6-40
– No Need to Link to Adobe Reader Page	6-41
b. Notice-Only	6-41
– Broadridge’s Deadlines for Notice-Only	6-41
– Some Companies Mail Earlier Than 40th Day	6-42
– Missed Deadline: Deliver Full Set	6-42
– Preliminary Proxy Filing Doesn’t Trigger Notice Requirements	6-43
– No Need for Mailing Address on Notice	6-43
– Form of Notice for Follow-Up Mailings	6-43
– Follow-Up Solicitation Reminder Letters	6-44
– Telephone Calls After Mailing	6-44
– Employee Reminders to Vote Not a Solicitation but Companies Often File Them Anyway	6-44
– Proxy Materials Filing Deadline	6-45
– Shareholder Proposal Deadlines Under E-Proxy	6-45
– Estimating Notice & Access Mailing Reduction	6-46
– ERISA Requirements for E-Distribution of Plan Materials	6-46
– File Notice As Separate Submission Designated “DEFA14A”	6-47
c. Full Set Delivery	6-48
– Must Post Materials on Tracking-Free Website	6-48
– Notice Must be Filed with SEC	6-48
– No Need to Offer Copies for Future Meetings	6-48
– Incorporating Notice Information in Proxy Materials	6-49
d. Hybrid Approach	6-49
– Analyzing When Best to Stratify	6-49
– Confirm Geographic Stratification with Broadridge	6-49
– Treating Paper Requestors as Full Set Delivery Recipients for Deadlines	6-50
– Fix Errors in Notice Prior to Mailing When Possible	6-50

Chapter 9—Confidential Treatment Requests (Exchange Act Rule 24b-2/ Securities Act Rule 406/FOIA Rule 83/Regulation S-K Item 601)

I.	SEC Rules and Regulations	9-6
II.	SEC Staff Guidance	9-19
III.	How the Rules Work	9-20
	a. What Can—and Cannot—Be Subject of Confidential Treatment Request	9-20
	– What is a “Confidential Treatment Request”?	9-20
	– Traditional CTR Doesn’t Require “Competitive Harm”	9-21
	– CTR Not Required for Material Contracts and Certain Other Exhibits.	9-21
	– Exhibit Redactions: Streamlined Process Not Available for All Item 601 Exhibits	9-21
	– Exhibit Redactions Do Not Require “Competitive Harm”	9-22
	– Unclear whether CTR Required for Item 601(a)(4) Amendments	9-22
	– Mark Exhibit Index & Exhibit to Reflect Confidential Treatment.	9-22
	– Can Only Seek Confidential Treatment for Portions of Document; Not Entire Thing	9-23
	– Limit Request to Just Words & Phrases; Not Overly Broad	9-23
	– CTRs Not Typically Granted for Required Disclosure	9-23
	– CTRs Not Typically Granted for Related Party Transaction Disclosure	9-23
	– Certain Provisions of Related Party Transaction Can Be Subject of CTR	9-24
	– Staff Not Likely to Grant CTR for Information in Financials.	9-24
	– Staff Won’t Grant CTR If Information Already Public	9-24
	– Don’t Accidentally Make Information Public on Edgar	9-25
	– Don’t Accidentally Make Information Public Outside of Edgar	9-25
	– Don’t Need CTR to Omit Personal Information	9-26
	b. Process for Confidential Treatment Requests	9-26
	– Submit CTR in Paper	9-26
	– Submit CTR “At Same Time” as Publicly Filing Document.	9-26
	– Timing for Emerging Growth Company’s CTR	9-27
	– SEC Staff Won’t Pre-Clear CTR Ahead of SEC Filing	9-27
	– Pre-Clearance Exceptions for EGCs, FPI IPOs or Certain Mergers	9-27
	– Seek Confidential Treatment For Your CTR	9-28
	– Mark Exhibit Index Plus Redact Words & Phrases With Legend When Filing	9-28
	– Consider Also Legending Exhibit Cover Page & Each Page of Exhibit	9-28
	– Inadvertent Omission of Confidential Treatment Legend	9-29
	– Update Confidential Treatment Legend Once CTR Granted.	9-29
	– Staff May Issue Comments That Require Amending Exhibit	9-29

– Staff Won’t Declare Registration Statement Effective Until CTR Comments Resolved	9-29
– No Registration Statement Effectiveness Until CTR Comments Resolved.	9-30
– No Registration Statement Effectiveness Until CTR Comments Resolved Even If ’34 Act CTR	9-30
– WKSIs Don’t Have to Delay Automatic Shelf If CTR Pending	9-30
– When Filing Registration Statement, Alert SEC Staff If CTR Involved	9-30
– Option to Delay Exhibit Filing for 8-K	9-30
– Staff Issues Order to Grant or Deny Confidential Treatment.	9-31
– Staff Calls if Application is Granted or Withdrawal is Permitted	9-31
– Staff Mails Notice if Application is Denied.	9-31
– Staff Likely to Issue Separate Orders If Grant CTR Under Both ’33 and ’34 Acts	9-31
– Duration of Staff’s Order.	9-31
– Unredacted Agreement for Which Confidential Treatment Expired Filed with Next Periodic Report	9-32
– If Staff Denies CTR, Must File Unredacted Exhibit Promptly In Amendment	9-32
– If Staff Denies CTR, Must File Unredacted Exhibit to Periodic Report; Not 8-K	9-32
– If Staff Denies CTR, May Want to Contact Other Party to Contract.	9-32
 c. How SEC Staff Processes Exhibit Redactions & Confidential Treatment Requests	 9-33
– Corp Fin Staff Reviews Exhibit Redactions	9-33
– Be Judicious With Redactions	9-33
– All Applications for Confidential Treatment Reviewed.	9-34
– Staff Calls If More Information Needed	9-34
– Corp Fin’s Office of Disclosure Support’s Technical Compliance Review	9-34

Chapter 28—Audit Committee Disclosure (Item 407(d) of Regulation S-K)

I. SEC Rules and Regulations	28-4
II. SEC Staff Guidance	28-9
III. How the Rules Work	28-9
a. Why Form an Audit Committee	28-9
– SEC Doesn’t Require Audit Committee, But Exchanges Do	28-9
b. Disclosure of Audit Committee Meetings & Members	28-9
– Disclosure of Audit Committee Meetings	28-9
– Disclosure of Audit Committee Members	28-10
– If Audit Committee Member Isn’t Independent, Special Disclosure Required	28-10

c.	Audit Committee Charters	28-10
	– Disclose Whether Audit Committee Charter Exists.	28-10
	– Disclose That Audit Committee Charter Posted on Corporate Website . . .	28-11
	– Use Charter As Proxy Statement Appendix Triennially If Not Posted Online.	28-11
	– Content of Audit Committee Charter Dictated by Exchanges.	28-11
	– Drafting Suggestions for Audit Committee Charters.	28-14
d.	Audit Committee Reports	28-15
	– Purpose of Audit Committee Report	28-15
	– Audit Committee Report Not Required in 10-K	28-15
	– Contents of Audit Committee Report	28-15
	– Review & Discussions Not Required by SEC, But Driven by Auditing & Exchange Standards	28-15
	– Details of Review Not Required, But Additional Information Often Included	28-16
	– Trend of Expanding Audit Committee Disclosure.	28-17

– Audit Committee’s Involvement with Risks of Material Misstatements . . .	28-32
– Audit Committee’s Involvement with Internal Controls	28-33
f. Audit Committee Financial Experts	28-34
– Purpose of Audit Committee Financial Experts	28-34
– Must Have At Least One “Audit Committee Financial Expert” (or Disclose Why Not)	28-34
– Must Identify Financial Expert	28-35
– Permitted to Have More Than One Financial Expert	28-35
– Definition of Financial Expert	28-35
– Financial Experts Must Possess All Five Attributes	28-36
– Attribute Requires Understanding of GAAP	28-36
– Attribute Requires Ability to Assess Application of GAAP to Estimates, Accruals, Reserves	28-36
– Attribute Requires Experience “Generally Comparable” To Those Raised By Company’s Financials	28-37
– Attribute Requires Understanding Internal Controls	28-37
– Alternative Means of Acquiring Attributes—Don’t Need Auditor Experience	28-37
– “Active Supervision” As Way to Gain Relevant Attributes & Experience	28-38
– “Experience” As Way to Gain Relevant Attributes & Experience	28-38
– “Education” Alone Not Enough to Gain Requisite Attributes & Experience	28-38
– Non-Exclusive Factors to Consider	28-39
– Serving on Audit Committee Alone Doesn’t Justify Expert Designation	28-40
– Serving as CFO or Auditor Doesn’t Automatically Qualify Person As Expert	28-40
– Designated Financial Expert Must Have Integrity	28-40
– Audit Committee Chair Commonly Designated as Financial Expert	28-40
– Financial Experts Have Safe Harbor Protection From Extra Liability	28-41
– Other Audit Committee Members Still Have Obligations; Should Not Defer to Designated Expert	28-41
– Financial Expert Designation is Board Determination	28-41
– Designate Audit Committee Financial Expert Annually	28-41
– Neither SEC Nor Proxy Advisors Likely to Second Guess Designation	28-42
– Financial Expert Disclosure Required Only in 10-K	28-43
– NYSE & Nasdaq Financial Expertise/Sophistication Requirements	28-43
– Per Exchange Standards, All Audit Committee Members Must be Financially Literate	28-44
– OTCBB Companies & Audit Committee Financial Experts	28-44

g.	Foreign Private Issuers	28-45
	– Foreign Private Issuers Subject to Audit Committee Requirements	28-45
	– Foreign Private Issuers Need Not Include Audit Committee Report	28-45
	– Foreign Private Issuers Need to Make Financial Expert Disclosure	28-46
h.	Disclosure of Engagement Partners	28-46
IV.	History	28-46

Chapter 29—Shareholder Communications with Directors Disclosure (Item 407(f) of Regulation S-K)

I.	SEC Rules and Regulations	29-2
II.	SEC Staff Guidance	29-3
III.	How the Rules Work	29-3
	– Purposes of Shareholder-Director Communication Requirement	29-3
	– Most Companies Provide Shareholder-Director Communication Process	29-4
	– If Company Doesn’t Have Process, Board’s Reasons Must Be Disclosed	29-4
	– No Need to Disclose Internal “Screening” Process If Independent Directors Approve	29-4
	– Option to Post Shareholder-Director Communication Disclosure Online	29-4
	– Employee-Shareholder Communications May Need to Be Relayed	29-5
	– Shareholder Proposals Not Part of Process	29-5
	– Interplay with SEC’s Rules for Audit Committee Procedures to Receive Confidential, Anonymous Complaints	29-5
	– Interplay with NYSE’s Requirement for Anyone to Communicate with Presiding Director or Non-Management/Independent Directors	29-6
	– Creating Disclosure Framework That Complies with All Three SEC/Exchange Requirements	29-7
	– Important to Document Communication Processes	29-11
	– Shareholder Engagement Disclosure Increasingly Common	29-12

III.	How the Rules Work	30-6
	a. Where Should Risk Factors Be Used & How	30-6
	– What is a “Risk Factor”?	30-6
	– Why Use Risk Factors?	30-6
	– Risk Factors Required in Form 10-Ks & Registration Statements	30-7
	– Risk Factors Must Be In Plain English	30-7
	– Plain English Means Clarity, Not Brevity	30-7
	– Reg S-K Concept Release Gives Risk Factor Best Practices	30-8
	– “Material Changes” to Previously Disclosed Risk Factors Updated in Form 10-Qs	30-8
	– Smaller Reporting Companies Not Required to Provide Periodic Report Risk Factors	30-8
	– Update Cautionary Language When Risk Factors Updated	30-9
	– Deciding Whether to Include Just Updates in Form 10-Q or Full Laundry List (Or Something In-Between)	30-9
	– Drafting Process If Merely Update Each Quarter Rather Than Repeat All	30-10
	– Repeat Updated Risk Factors in Subsequent 10-Qs Until Next 10-K	30-11
	– No Need for Negative Disclosure If No Update for 10-Q	30-11
	– Include New Risks That Arise During Quarter; Don’t Just Update 10-K Risks	30-12
	– Most Companies Don’t Regurgitate 10-K Risk Factors in 10-Q	30-12
	– When Regurgitating 10-K Risk Factors in 10-Q, Include 2-page Summary When Disclosure Exceeds 15 pages	30-12
	– First Post-IPO Form 10-Q Report, Companies Often Include Risk Factor Disclosure	30-13
	– Not Common to Use Form 10-Q to Eliminate Risk Factor	30-13

– Include Risks That Arise After Reporting Period Ends, But Before Filing	30-13
– When to File 8-Ks to Disclose Updated Risk Factors Between Periodic Reports	30-13
– New “One-Off” Risk Factor Triggers	30-14
– Use 8-K to Update Risk Factors Between Periodic Reports; Not Amendment to 10-K/10-Q	30-16
– Amend 10-K/Q to Correct Risk Factor	30-16
– Can’t Incorporate Risk Factors Filed In Exhibit by Reference	30-16
– Risk Factors Required in Form 20-Fs	30-16
– Including Risk Factors in Prospectus Rather Than Incorporate By Reference	30-17
– Whether to Include Risk Factors in Base Prospectus or Prospectus Supplement	30-18
