“Proxy Disclosure Conference”
&
“18th Annual Executive Compensation Conference”

October 13-15, 2021
Live Virtual Conference Event

SEC disclosure requirements are changing, and the expectations from investors and stakeholders are higher than ever before. At this three-day virtual conference, you'll get practical guidance, direct from the experts, on how to use the annual reporting season to your advantage. Show that your board is taking the right steps on ESG and executive pay — and ensure that you're complying with new SEC rules.

Our live, interactive virtual format gives you a chance to earn CLE credit and ask real-time questions. After the conferences, we not only make the full video archive available for you to refer back to, but also the transcripts for each session — so you can refer back to all of the practical nuggets when you're grappling with your executive pay decisions, disclosures and engagements.

Who Should Attend: Every person responsible for preparing and reviewing proxy disclosures, including ESG disclosures and executive compensation disclosures, should attend this conference. Learn what you need to know about disclosure best practices — and pitfalls to avoid. In addition, these conferences are key for anyone involved with implementing executive and equity compensation plans or who counsels or advises boards on those matters.

Where: Building on our many years of well-received online conference programming, this year's conferences will be entirely virtual — live and on-demand.
